

We wish you a Happy and Brave Journey through the Year of 2013!

As an organizer we are pleased to announce the international event with Karen Jacobs and Nancy MacRae, occupational therapists and recognized professors from USA. Workshops will take place on the 16th and 17th August 2013 in Slovenia. Welcome!

Slovenian Study Circle Occupational Therapy

Karen Jacobs is a professor of occupational therapy at Boston University, Massachusetts, USA; former president of American Occupational Therapy Association and a very well recognized promoter of occupational therapy all over the world. Karen's research explores the interface between the environment and human capabilities. In addition to being an occupational therapist, Karen is also a certified professional ergonomist.

Nancy MacRae is a professor of occupational therapy at University of New England, Maine, USA. Her research interests focus on occupation, the elderly, sexuality, death and loss, interdisciplinary/professional approaches to health care, management and supervision issues.
